

I heartily disagree w/ the relaxation of controls RE: media ownership. I strongly feel there needs to be local influence on the accepted programming, and this would be heavily impacted by large-corporation ownership, i.e. less responsive to local standards, or perhaps even oblivious to local standards.

Mass ownership is not a "democratic" form of broadcast policy, and this country SHOULD require democracy when/where possible.

Thank you.